Kensington, May 28.

THE humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, Common-Council, and Inhabitants, of Her Majeſty's ancient Town and Port of Sandwich, in the County of Kent: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Henry Furneſe Kt. and Joſiah Burchet Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

AMong the reſt of Your Majeſty's Dutiful Subjects we do, in the moſt humble manner, offer up our Thanks to Almighty GOD for the many Bleſſings which we have enjoy'd during Your Majeſty's Glorious Reign: And we do, with the ſincereſt Gratitude, acknowledge, and humbly thank Your Majeſty for Your conſtant and unparallel'd Endeavours for the General Good of Your People; who, as they cannot be otherwiſe than Happy under Your Majeſty's Wiſe, Juſt, and Religious, Government; ſo hath Your Majeſty ſhewn a particular Inſtance of Your Princely Regard towards them, in the Union of the Two Kingdoms; the which was unſucceſsfully endeavour'd by Your Royal Predeceſſors. But as Providence hath, in regard to Your Extraordinary Virtues, hitherto proſper'd all Your Undertakings; ſo do we moſt heartily pray, That Your Majeſty may long reign over us, and ſee the Happy Effects of Your own Pious Care; And that, by the continued Glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms, Europe may enjoy a Speedy and Laſting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal the Twentieth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeven.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants, of Her Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Huntingdon: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Edward Wortley alias Mountague Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, moſt humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland: By which the Strength of this Nation is ſo much encreaſed, the Trade thereof ſo well ſecured, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion ſo firmly eſtabliſhed, that there are no Hopes left for any Enemy to invade or diſturb us.

That Your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Effects of this Great Bleſſing, and always reign in the united Hearts of all Your Subjects, is the unfeigned Deſire of us, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of Her Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and other Her Majeſty's Subjects, of the County of Huntingdon, has been preſented to Her Majeſty.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE many Great and Glorious Victories of Your Majeſty's Arms over the Common Enemy, has given us frequent Occaſions of preſenting Your Majeſty with our moſt humble Thanks; and has often filled all the World with a juſt Admiration of Your Majeſty's Valiant Arms, and Well-converted Council: We do now moſt humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the Happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, and thereby the firm Eſtabliſhment of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in Great Britain; a Work of ſo Publick a Benefit, and ſo difficult in its Nature, that it proved too great for any of Your Majeſty's Predeceſſors, and was reſerved for Your Majeſty's Great Soul and Prudent Adminiſtration.

We will be ſo united in Hearts, that no Diviſions amongſt ourſelves ſhall fruſtrate the Hopeful Expectation of the Happy Conſequence of this Great Work; and will always unite in our Prayers for Your Majeſty's Long and Happy Reign over us.

The following Addreſſes being tranſmitted from Ireland, were alſo preſented to Her Majeſty by his Excellency the Earl of Pembroke, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid Kingdom.

An humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, Judges of Aſſizes, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Corke, at the General Aſſizes and General Goal-Delivery held for the ſaid County, at the King's Old Caſtle near Corke, the 31ſt Day of March, 1707.

An humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, and Freeholders, of the County of Antrim in the Kingdom of Ireland, at the General Aſſizes for the ſaid County, April 9. 1707.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Burgeſſes, Grand Jury, Freemen, and others, Inhabitants of the County, of the Town of Carrickfergus, at a Quarter-Seſſions held at Carrickfergus, the 28th Day of April, 1707, for the ſaid County of the Town of Carrickfergus.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Turin, May 18. N. S. The Troops which are Quarter'd in the Mantuan are on their March this way, and thoſe which are nearer us are to move very ſuddenly, ſo that the whole Army may be aſſembled by the 10th of the next Month; about which time his Royal Highneſs deſigns to take the Field. The Baron de Kniphauſen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Pruſſia to the King of Spain, went Yeſterday for Milan; from whence he is to go for Genoa, and embark for Barcelona. The Marquis de Trivié, his Royal Highneſs's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Spain, is alſo upon his Departure for Genoa, and will continue his Voyage from thence with the Baron de Kniphauſen. The Detachment deſign'd for Naples is order'd to halt, till an Anſwer be return'd to Letters that are lately ſent from hence to Vienna; which we may expect in Eight Days time. If thoſe Troops are countermanded hither, they may arrive ſoon enough to ſerve in his Royal Highneſs's Expedition.

Paris, May 30. On the 22d in the Evening the Marſhal de Villars made a ſplendid Ball at Strasburgh, the better to conceal the Execution of his intended Enterprize, and eſcape the Obſervation of any that might give Intelligence to the Enemy. At Eleven at Night he had directed a Courier to come to him, under Pretence of bringing Orders from the King; and taking Leave of the Company, as if he went to read his Letters, deſired them to continue their Diverſion. He left the Town privately at Midnight, and at One in the Morning began to charge the Enemy according to the Diſpoſition he had before made. He ordered Four Attacks at the ſame time, Two of which were only Feints. Monſieur de Broglio commanded the great Attack towards Dagenbach with 24 Battalions, while the Marſhal himſelf, at the Head of 17 more, advanc'd toward Biell. The Enemy retir'd at his Approach in ſuch Precipitation, that when he enter'd their Camp he found their Tents ſtanding, and ſeveral of their Muſquets thrown away in their Flight. Monſieur Peri, who made one of the falſe Attacks, march'd up to the Enemy, and receiv'd the Fire of their Small Arms; but thoſe who firſt fled, ſtruck ſuch a general Terror through the reſt, that he alſo entred without Oppoſition; and joining the Sieur Vivans, ſent immediate Advice to Monſieur Broglio, that he was Maſter of the Lines; deſiring him, that on his ſide he would only keep the Enemy employ'd till a Detachment of Horſe and Grenadiers, which he was ſending to his Aſſiſtance, were come up to fall upon 'em in their Rear. We don't hear of any that were taken Priſoners in this Action. The Princeſs of Baden was leaving her Palace, but ſtay'd upon the Invitation of the Marſhal de Villars, who made her Highneſs a Viſit, and left 50 Grenadiers for her Safeguard. He afterwards continued his March to Dourlach, being met by ſeveral Bailiffs and Deputies of the adjacent Parts, who came to ſettle their Contributions. The Troops which were in the Lines, together with 6000 Men which were to join 'em the next Day, are retir'd to Hailbron on the Neckar, where they expect great Reinforcements. Madam de Montespan is dead at Bourbon. The Count de Thoulouſe was on his Way to ſee her, but was met by a Courier with the News of her Death, on which Occaſion he return'd to Rambouillet. The Duke du Maine is likewiſe withdrawn to Sceaux, the Ducheſs of Bourbon to St. Maur, and the Ducheſs of Orleans to Verſailles. But tho' their Highneſſes are retired from Court for ſome time, they do not go into Mourning for her. The King hath ſent Orders to equip ſome Men of War at Toulon; but there is ſo great a Scarcity of Money, and Decay of Publick Credit, that thoſe Preparations go on very ſlowly. Letters from Madrid adviſe, That the Duke of Orleans left that City on the 15th Inſtant to join the Troops which are gathering on the Frontiers tiers of Navarre. The Duke of Berwick was advancing towards the Ebro, the Enemy having got together a considerable Body of Forces on the other side of that River. The Chevalier d'Asteld hath laid Siege to Xativa, which makes a very vigorous Defence.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Meldert, June 2. On Monday the Army halted at the Camp near Beaulieu. In the mean time the Baggage came up; and Bread being deliver'd to the Soldiers, the next Day we march'd to the Camp of Bethlehem, near Louvain, where his Grace immediately gave Orders for laying Bridges over the Dyle; which River we pass'd Yesterday, and march'd to the Plains of Meldert, and are now encamp'd with our Right near Vaelbeck, and our Left at Hoeggarde; our heavy Baggage remaining on the other side Louvain. We have Advice, That the Enemy march'd this Day from the Plains of Flerus to Perwis; and they seem, by their March into that strong Camp, to decline an Engagement, and to have form'd some Design upon Huy.

Hague, June 2. N. S. We hear that the Duke of Wirtemberg has got together an Army of 25000 Men, which encreases daily; so that the French are not likely to draw those Advantages which they propos'd to themselves from passing the Lines of Stollhoffen. The Reports of their taking the Artillery there proves false; and as their Forces are chiefly compos'd of Militia, it is thought they will soon be oblig'd to march out of Germany, and repass the Rhine.

Kinsale, May 18. Two Days ago Capt. Lawrence, in Her Majesty's Ship the Bridgewater, sailed from this Port, upon Notice of some Privateers, and about Midnight fell in with 3 Ships; one of them the Affair, a French Man of War, of 24 Guns, and 200 Men, Monsieur le Blanc Commander; the other the Cochardy, of 12 Guns, and 90 Men; and a Prize they had taken. He engaged them for Two Hours and a half: After which they made all the Sail they could, and got away; but he retook their Prize, which was the Henry of Bristol, Ed. Dorrington Master, from Virginia. We hear that Captain Price, Commander of Her Majesty's Ship the Somerset, the 5th of April, near the Coast of Barbary, took Two French Ships bound from Marseilles for Guinea; one of 300 Tuns, 24 Guns, 6 Patereroes, and 176 Men; the other a small Ship, of 70 Tuns, 6 Guns, 6 Patereroes, and 15 Men.

Spithead, May 24. On the 10th Instant Her Majesty's Ship the Dover, under the Command of Capt. Thomas Matthews, 15 Leagues off of Scilly, took a French Ship of 26 Guns, and 215 Men. On the 20th she chas'd 2 other Vessels, and took one of 'em, a Privateer of 6 Guns and 50 Men.

It is Her Majesty's Command, That all Persons do forbear Application to be Touch'd this Season; and that no more Tickets be deliver'd out till it shall be Her Majesty's Pleasure to Heal again; of which publick Notice will be given.

Whereas a Letter signed G. M. dated the 27th of May, was sent to one of the Secretaries of State by the Penny-Post: The Person who wrote the same is desired to come to the Secretary to whom he sent it, or to send Word how he may be spoke with, and he shall find all fitting Encouragement.

The Commissioners for Victualling Her Majesty's Navy having received a Letter by the Penny-Post, dated the 24th Instant, sign'd C. H. If the Person who wrote the said Letter will come to their Office, and make out his Allegations, he shall receive all fitting Encouragement.
